Late Entry

Several days after the graduation of the class of 1955, I went to Schmitt's (the usual hangout) and ordered a bebop coke. After taking several sips of the magic potion, I fell into a long, deep sleep. When I awakened it was 1965, exactly ten years later. Worried about the fact that I had slept away ten years of my life, I decided to find out what I had missed. I met ELLEN SOMMERS, and she told me that she is now the mother of three children. She proceeded to tell me of the whereabouts of our classmates.

WOODROW ANDERSON and DON ANNIS are touring the United States with their flea circus. JIM GEORGE and his wife, the former PATSY JOHNS, are living in California where Jim is designing sets for MGM. DONNA ARMSTRONG is also in California. She is wrestling under the name of "Strongarm Sara."

Three of our classmates are playing professional ball. LARRY (YOGI) SMITH is catching for the Waverly Whoppers, RAY FULLER is playing halfback for the Waverly Wonders, and WAYNE SMITHSON is playing basketball for the Lake White Lakers coached by JACK JAMESON. TOM REDMAN is coaching ping pong at Jasper Tech, and JEAN ARNETT is coaching mumbly peg at West Point.

ETHELANNE OYER is the first woman President of the United States, BEVERLY PFAHL is the first woman Lt. Governor of Rhode Island, and ALICE FERGUSON is Mayor of Waverly. BILL GATES is having a terrible time keeping track of his oil wells in Texas. SHERRY HOBBS is in Alaska doing research on penguins.

ROSEMARY EVANS and JUANITA HAVENS are busy counting atoms at the Atomic Plant. FRANK CONKEL and FRANCIS JARVIS, the famous scientists, are experimenting to produce a pod that will hold twenty peas.

Professor JERRY SEAT, at the age of 27, is the world's youngest college president. He is president of the University of Kuku in Africa. NANCY LANDRUM is living in Hawaii where she is practicing law. We also had royalty in our class because BETTY MARTIN is now Queen of Siberia. KATHY DIXON has controlling interest in all of the diamond mines in Africa. LOIS TOLLE is collecting money at the toll bridge in Piketon. LARRY RICE has moved to China where he owns the Chinco Rice Company. ROY PRESTON runs the Presto Ready Whip Company, and ED CRABTREE is making millions by selling his famous crabapple jelly. BETTY LOONEY owns half interest in the A & P Company.

As we stood there talking, a sabre jet whizzed down the street and blew its siren at us. Ellen told me that it was "play boy" BOB DAVIS. Ellen and I departed, and I walked down the strange streets of Waverly. So many things have changed. First of all I saw the Gam Record Shop owned and operated by MARGARET RADER. The movie is now being run by BOB HATCHER and RONNIE ANNIS, and it is called The Hatan. Now showing is "Deep Dark Secrets of 1965" by BOB LAING, starring "Suzette and Lowell" (SUSI LEEVER and JUNIOR LOWE). I bought a paper and read that GENE JAMES is now the publisher of the Waverly Gazette. Justice of the Peace is JIM SCHAUSEIL. In the ad section there is a picture of REX and ROY LEVERICH, and under it is printed "Which Twin Takes Hadacol?" ROSEMARY LANE, now known as Lady Rose, the Daredevil, will be at the "Drive at Your Own Risk Speedway" tonight. DON ROSS owns the speedway now. An atomic permanent will cost you $5.00 at the "You're Not Hopeless" Beauty Salon operated by LOIS COLEGROVE and RUTH ANN PRATER. SHIRLEY EVERETT is selling gasoline cheap at her Whiz Filling Station this week. BEVERLY THORPE and BETTY SNIVELY are running the "You Tell Us Your Troubles Club." SHASTA BYRD has her new book for sale. It is called "Care of Parakeets." It seems that CHARLOTTE WOODS, the forest ranger, is a heroine. She saved two squirrels in the forest fire last week. JEANETTE McCARROLL, the famous mathematician, has proved that Einstein was "all wet." The Six B's, BARBARA BURDETT, ABBIE BOLIN, CAROL BARKER, BARBARA BLAUM, HILDA BUTLER, and PEGGY BARBEE, are currently dancing at the Scioto Motel.

MARILYN DIXON is running a rest home for school teachers.

JIM MASSEY and WILMA MATHEWS are co-owners of the M & M Candy Company. SHELBA DAVIS and SHELBA ATHINGTON are managers of the Shelby Company which manufactures cough drops. I passed a building which is still under construction, and the sign in front read "This will soon be the site of the Atom Cleaners," owned by KAY ADAMS. All electrical work is being done by JACK ALLSBURY, Inc.

I also passed the Boyer Funeral Home which is now under the direction of DAVID BOYER. All music for the funeral home is handled by VERLIN KRITZWISER and his "Four Deadbeats" CHARLES STEVENS, RAY SPRADLIN, PAUL KEMPER, and JOHN CHANDLER.

Last but not least is our own JON MYERS who is the world's champion flag pole sitter.

When I first awakened, I was sorry that I had missed ten years, but now I feel that it was best. For now that I have found out about some of my friends and their occupations, I don't think I could have lived through those ten years.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1955

On a sunny day in September, 1943, a group of little tots came to school for the first time. Some of us were bashful and uncertain, but our teachers, Mrs. Yahraus and Mrs. Brown, soon helped us to overcome this. Twenty-two of the original class still remain with us. They are Margaret Rader, Roy Preston, Larry Smith, Donnie and Ronnie Annis, Verlin Kritzwiser, Nancy Landrum, Hilda Butler, Betty Martin, Diane Douglas, Barbara Burdett, Susi Leever, Jack Jameson, Paul Kemper, Gene James, Ed Crabtree, Barbara Blaum, Jim George, Rosemary Evans, Marilyn Dixon, Ethelanne Oyer, and David Boyer.

Grade school days hurried by quickly with the usual cuts and bruises occuring on the playground. Some of the highlights were listening to the radio once a week an Indian play in Mrs. Matthews' class, and a Betsy Ross play in Mrs. Edlemann's Class.

Junior high was really a change because we were in a new building and we were changing classes. Occasionally someone would wander into a senior room and really be embarrassed. These two years we had our own basketball team and cheerleaders. In the seventh grade our team gave us a big thrill by winning the Junior High Pike County Tournament. In the eighth grade we took the dreaded eighth grade exam. We all passed it, and then we had Eighth Grade Graduation Exercises.

Several new students from rural districts joined us in our freshman year. When we were sophomores, we began to join in more activities and this was the year that we ordered our class rings.

At last we were juniors. Many of our boys were on the athletic teams, and five of our girls were cheerleaders. We were also well represented in band, chorus, and on the scholarship team. We were all very proud when we received our rings. This year we printed our first Hi-Lite and our float won the Homecoming parade. We presented our play, "NO MORE HOMEWORK", and we finished this exciting year with the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom.

Finally we reached that one glorious year that every student says almost with reverence--SENIOR! This year was full of many hours of hard work and twice as much fun. Our football queen was Betty Martin, with Alice Ferguson as senior attendant. We published our final edition of the Hi-Lite, sold magazines, took Senior Scholarship Tests, worked very hard on this annual, had a class play, and were feted by the juniors at the Banquet and Prom. At last came graduation and our farewells. Good-by to W. H. S., to teachers and to friends. From this moment on, we are individuals, each taking a different path which will lead him to his position in life.

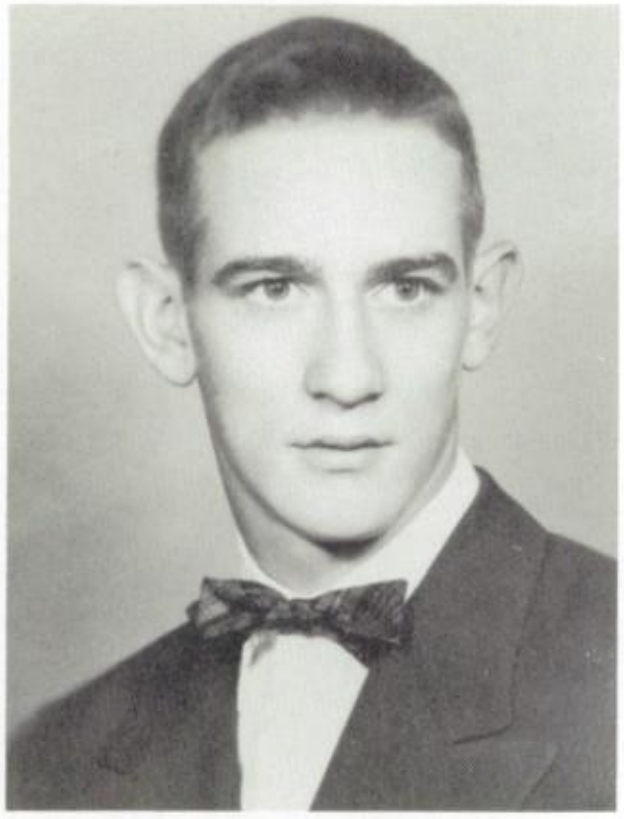
A CROWN FOR THE TIGER

LONG LIVE THE QUEEN

Football Captain Tom Redman crowned petite Betty Martin Queen of the 1954 Homecoming Game and Festivities while the rain did its best to dampen her pretty smile. Betty's Court included her escort, Jim George, Alice Ferguson, senior attendant escorted by Bob Davis, Judy Zickafoose, escorted by Bob Hatcher, Barbara Schrock, escorted by Darrell Colecrove, and Linda Annis, escorted by Gene Stouder. After Tom planted the traditional "captain's privilege" on Betty's lips, and presented her with a spray of gold chrysanthemums, the Queen and her Court went to the Grade School Auditorium where the Homecoming Dance was held. In the gym which was decorated with streamers and balloons, Bonnie Sue Butler and Dickie Jameson rolled out a white carpet for the Queen. The royal procession walked to the throne while Ron Ridenour's orchestra played "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody". The high light of the dance was Coach Hawhee's coronation and kiss for Betty.

THE 1954 HOMECOMING COURT

LONG LIVE THE QUEEN



Wayne Smithson, president of the class of 1955, passed the mental and physical requirements for selection as an N R O T C candidate. When he successfully met the physical requirements, he became one of a group of high school and college students whose names have now been submitted to a state committee for final selection as N R O T C students. This final selection will be based upon scholarship, leadership, character, physical fitness, recommendations, and personal interviews. Those who are chosen will receive a four-year college education with all expenses paid, and will, upon graduation, be commissioned as officers in either the Navy or the Marine Corps.

The students and the faculty join in congratulating these boys and in wishing them success in their programs.

Eastern State College has offered Don Annis a four-year athletic scholarship with all expenses paid. Donnie was an All-Conference selection on the S. O. C. Team this year. He was the only tackle to make both the offensive unit and the defensive unit.

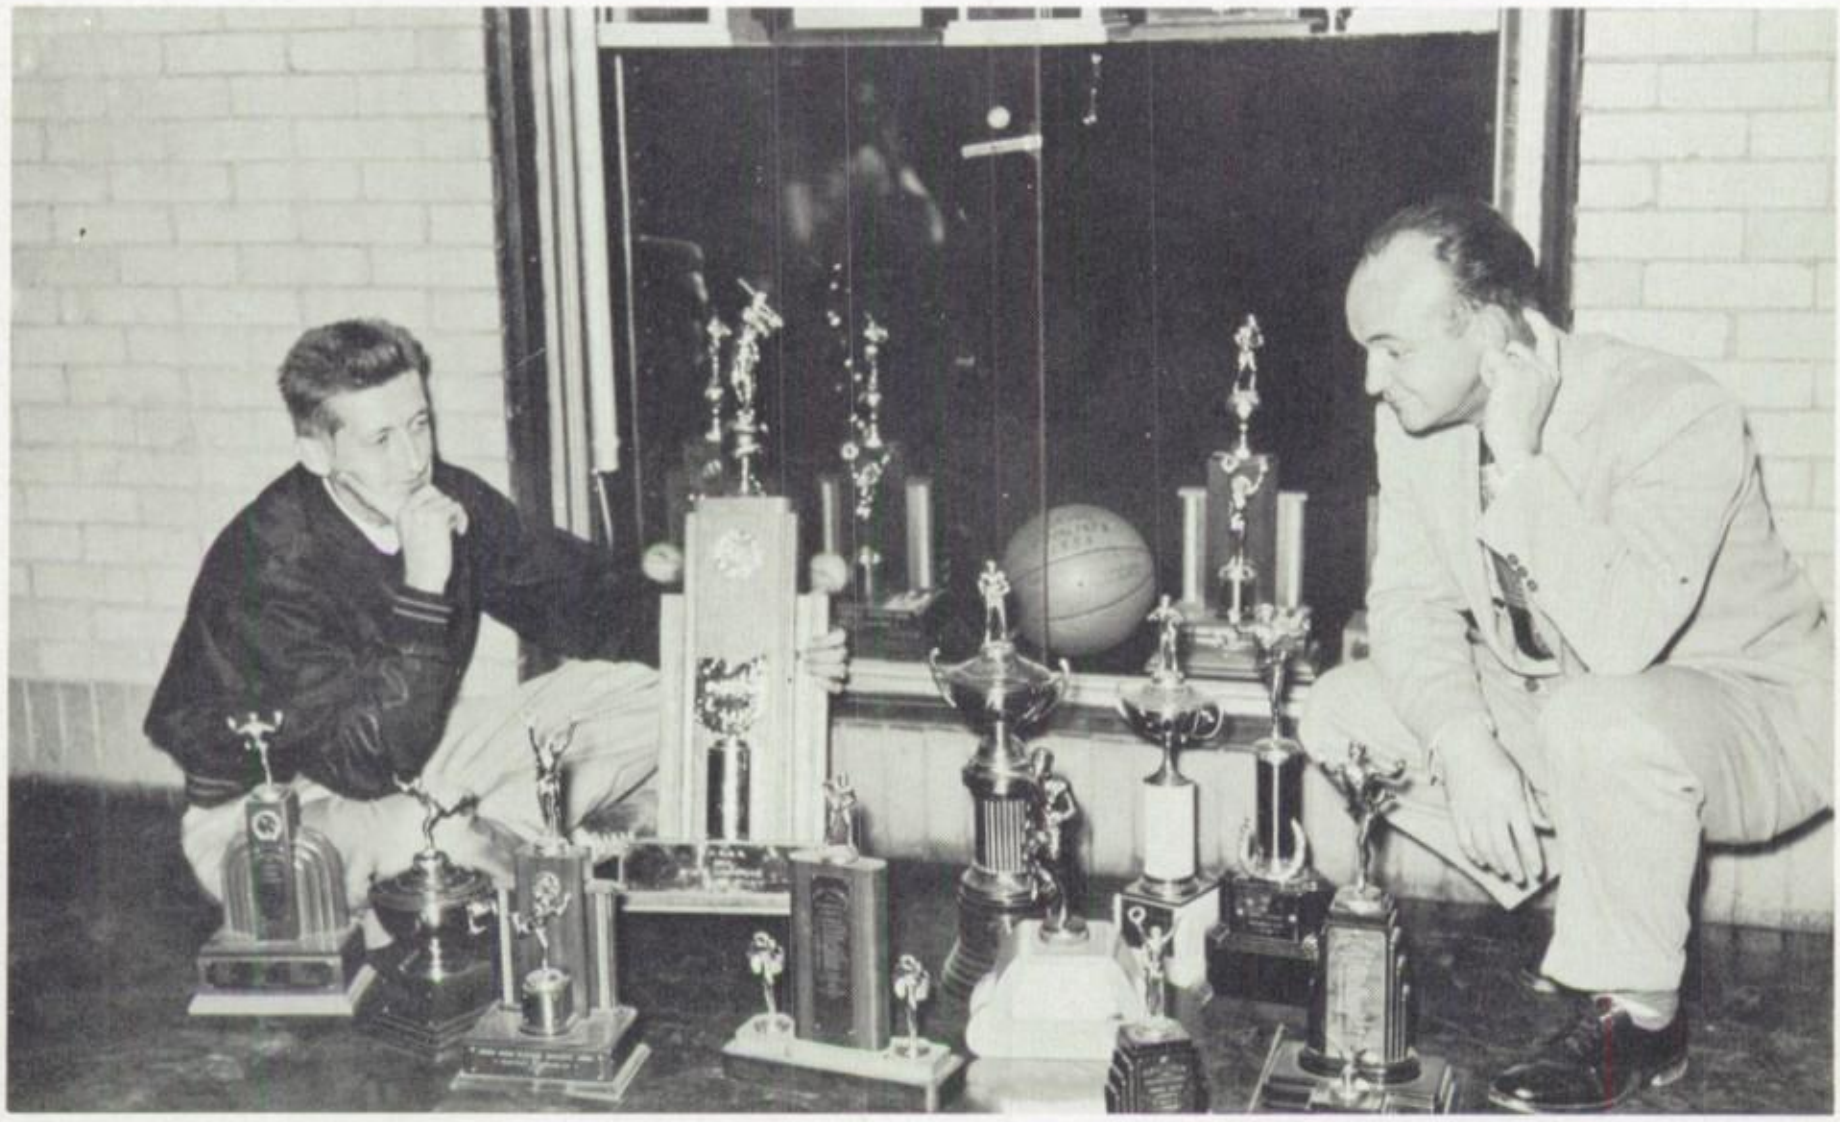
COACHES OF WAVERLY HIGH SCHOOL



Since Coaches Hawhee and Arnett have come to Waverly, the school has boasted the finest athletic record in its history. In the past few years, the boys have won so many trophies that W. H. S. is having difficulty trying to find a place to display each one. Here the coaches tackle the problem.

S. O. C. CHAMPS

The Waverly Tigers waded through five Conference teams without a defeat to gain their first S. O. C. Championship in football since 1950. The Tigers outscored Conference foes 104 to 7. Waverly Coaches Hawhee and Arnett boasted one of the finest defensive teams in the state. The Tigers outscored opponents 199 to 60, while losing only to a strong Columbus Rosary team in the last game of the season. This season's record was the best since Coach Hawhee started football.

The Tigers placed five boys on the All-Conference Team. They were Captain Tom Redman, Jim Schauseil, Donnie Annis, Jerry Knight, and Wade Cormany. Cormany and Knight are only Juniors.
